

Flubendiamide

Active ingredient	Flubendiamide
Formulation	220 g/l SC; 200 g/kg WG
Chemical class/FRAC	Ryanodine receptor modulator; IRAC group 28
Mode of Action	Ingestion and contact
Targets	Lepidoptera (Adoxophyes sp. , Chilo suppressalis , Cydia sp. , Grapholitha sp. , Helicoverpa armigera , Lobesia botrana , Ostrinia nubilalis , Pieris sp. , Plutella xylostella , Tuta absoluta and many others)
Approved on	Pome fruits, stone fruits, grapes, vegetables, arable crops (corn, potatoes, cotton, sugar beet, ...)
Registered in	Japan, Korea, Brazil, many Middle East and African countries
Brand names	Phoenix, Takumi, (BCS brand: Belt, Fenos)

Main competitors:

Diamides, Indoxacarb, Emamectine, ...

Product benefits

- ✓ Long lasting residual activity
- ✓ Excellent effect on all larval stages
- ✓ Wide spectrum of control of lepidopteran pests
- ✓ Safe to bees and other non-target arthropods
- ✓ No cross resistance to conventional insecticides

Use Plant Protection products safely. Always read the label and product information.

